Monthly Report

Apr. 14, 2018

Omicron Omicron Chapter

The ladies of the Omicron Omicron Chapter hosted Spirit Night at Buffalo Wild Wings on Mar. 28. The chapter was recognized at the Pillars of Excellence Program at Longwood on Mar. 25. The chapter received the Pillar of Excellence Gold Award and Soror Kayla Hogue was NPHC Chapter President of the Year. On Apr. 4, the ladies recognized April as Autism Awareness Month. They brought awareness to the campus by sharing information about autism and passing out lollipops. On Apr. 13-14, the ladies will participate in Spring Weekend. They will be in the yard show on Apr. 13 and will sell cotton candy at their student organization booth on Stubbs Lawn on Apr. 14 at Noon. The chapter will host Swim 1922 on Apr. 21 at 11:00 a.m. at Willitt Pool. They will host this event with the Xi Zeta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. The ladies will have a road clean-up on Apr. 29.

Hi Teresa,
Branding directive for those who are going to swim 1922. The directive would be SGRho blue shirt comfortable bottom and shoe. Or shirt of choice. Remember branding is never mandatory

Sisterly,

Soror Jones

The social committee is waiting on approval for the Petersburg Library space for June 2, 2018 from 1pm-4pm for a Play Date. This "Play Date" will consist of board games, jeopardy, and unfortunately no snacks (sorry). Once approval is given a flyer will be introduced in the group chat. We also had a GREAT time at the Cine Bistro watching Black Panther together, thank you to all that attended and we look forward to future events and bonding!
